SECTION: LOCAL BOARD PROCEDURES

TITLE: CONFLICT OF INTEREST

ADOPTED: October 12, 2016

REVISED:

012. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

§1. Purpose

The conflict of interest policy is designed to help CCA Board members, officers and employees of CCA identify situations to prevent potential conflict of interest and to provide CCA with a procedure which, if observed, will allow a transaction to be treated as valid and binding even though a Director, officer or employee may have a conflict of interest with respect to the transaction.

§ 2. Definitions

Conflict of Interest - for the purposes of this policy, the following circumstances shall be deemed to create a conflict of interest:

Outside interests, outside activities, gifts, gratuities and entertainment – under circumstances where it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the responsible person in the performance of his/her duties. This does not preclude the acceptance of items of nominal or insignificant value or entertainment of nominal or insignificant value which are not related to any particular transaction or activity of CCA.

A responsible person is any person serving as an officer, employee or member of the Board of Directors of CCA.

A family member is a spouse, domestic partner, parent/guardian, child or spouse of a child, brother, sister, or spouse of a brother or sister, of a responsible person.

A material financial interest in an entity is a financial interest of any kind, which, in view of all the circumstances, is substantial enough that it would, or reasonably could, affect a responsible person's or family member's judgment with respect to transactions to which the entity is a party. This includes all forms of compensation.

A contract or transaction is any agreement of relationship involving the sale or purchase of goods, services, or rights of any kind, the providing or receipt of a loan or grant, the establishment of any type of pecuniary relationship, or review of a charitable organization by CCA. The making of a gift to CCA is not a contract or transaction

§ 3. Procedure

Prior to Board or committee action on a contract or transaction involving a conflict of interest, a director or committee member having a conflict of interest and who is in attendance at the meeting shall disclose all facts material to the conflict of interest.

Such disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting. A director or committee member who plans not to attend a meeting at which s/he has reason to believe that the Board or committee will act on a matter in which the person has a conflict of interest shall disclose to the Chair of the meeting all facts material to the conflict of interest. The chair shall report the disclosure at the meeting and the disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting.

A person who has a conflict of interest shall not participate in or be permitted to hear the Board's or committee's discussion of the matter except to disclose material facts and to respond to questions. Such person shall not attempt to exert his/her personal influence with respect to the matter, either at or outside the meeting.

A person who has a conflict of interest with respect to a contract or transaction that will be voted on at a meeting shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum for purposes of the vote. The person having a conflict of interest may not vote on the contract or transaction and shall not be present in the meeting room when the vote is taken, unless the vote is by secret ballot. Such person's ineligibility to vote shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting. For purposes of this paragraph, a member of the Board of Directors of CCA has a conflict of interest when s/he stands for election as an officer or for re-election as a member of the Board of Directors.

Responsible persons who are not members of the Board of Directors of CCA, or who have a conflict of interest with respect to a contract or transaction that is not the subject of Board or committee action, shall disclose to the Chair or the Chair's designee any conflict of interest that such responsible person has with respect to a contract or transaction. Such disclosure shall be made as soon as the conflict of interest is known to the responsible person. The responsible person shall refrain from any action that may affect CCA's participation in such contract or transaction.

In the event it is not entirely clear that a conflict of interest exists, the individual with the potential conflict shall disclose the circumstances to the Chair or the Chair's designee, who shall determine whether there exists a conflict of interest that is subject to this policy.

§ 4. Confidentiality

Each responsible person shall exercise care not to disclose confidential information acquired in connection with such status or information the disclosure of which might be adverse to the interests of CCA. Furthermore, a responsible person shall not disclose or use information relating to the business of CCA for the personal profit or advantage of the responsible person or a family member.

§ 5. Policy Review

Each new responsible person shall be required to review a copy of this policy and to acknowledge in writing that s/he has done so.

Each responsible person shall annually complete a disclosure form identifying any relationships, positions or circumstances in which the responsible person is involved that s/he believes could contribute to a conflict of interest arising. Such relationships, positions or circumstances might include service as a director of or consultant to a nonprofit organization, or ownership of a business that might provide goods or services to CCA. Any such information regarding business interests of a responsible person or a family member shall be treated as confidential and shall generally be made available only to the Chair, the Chief Executive Officer, and any committee appointed to address conflicts of interest, except to the extent additional disclosure is necessary in connection with the implementation of this policy.

This policy shall be reviewed annually by each member of the Board of Directors.

Any changes to the policy shall be communicated to all responsible persons.
